15. On or about April 6, 2005, decedent, Dennis Courtney was found dead at his secondary residence in Oakwood, Texas. His death was ruled a homicide.
16. Escaped inmates, Oscar Roy Doster and James Darren Harnage were implicated in the death of Dennis Courtney.
17. Prior to April 6, 2005, Oscar Roy Doster and James Darren Harnage were inmates in the Covington County, Alabama jail, which was administered and overseen by Defendant, Sheriff Anthony Clark. Oscar Roy Doster along with inmate James Darren Harnage was allowed to escape from the jail on or about March 31, 2005, in a similar manner and method as their first escape which occurred on or about November 3, 2002.
18. Defendants, Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others were allowed to escape from the Covington County, Alabama jail by the Sheriff and his employees.
19. Prior to the escape of Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others, numerous other instances of escapes had occurred and Sheriff Anthony Clark was fully aware of these instances.
20. In the incident that made the basis of this complaint, Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others were allowed to escape by entering the ventilation system of the jail building without being detected in a similar manner and method as the first time Doster escaped. Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others exited the jail facility through the ventilation system and then scaled the surrounding fence and successfully escaped without being detected in any way.

21. Sheriff Anthony Clark and his staff failed to keep a proper lookout and/or properly monitor and supervise the activities of Oscar Roy Doster and other inmates.
22. In addition, when the first escape occurred in 2002, Sheriff Anthony Clark and his staff willfully and intentionally suppressed the information of the escape. Sheriff Anthony Clark neglected to notify the public of the inherent danger lurking. Sheriff Anthony Clark deliberately waited until after the regularly scheduled election in November 2002 wherein he was a candidate seeking reelection to his position as Sheriff. It was alleged that Sheriff Anthony Clark hid this information from the public in an effort to avoid negative publicity as he sought the bid for reelection.
23. The intentional acts, oversight, and negligence on the part of Sheriff Anthony Clark and his staff specifically contributed to and/or caused the events leading up to and the untimely death of Dennis Courtney.
24. Corporate Defendants, Hollis and Span, Inc., Seymour and Lisenby Architects, Darden Engineers, and Dickey and Associates, Inc. were each separately and severally responsible for the design, engineering and/or construction of the Covington County Jail facility.
25. Corporate Defendant, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc. was responsible for the installation and proper operation of the surveillance system in the Covington County Jail facility and this oversight, negligently and/or wantonly committed, caused and/or contributed to the untimely death of Dennis Courtney.

26. Corporate defendants, Hollis and Span, Inc., Seymour and Lisenby Architects, Darden Engineers, and Dickey and Associates, Inc. failed to design and/or construct an adequate secure facility for Covington County, Alabama and this oversight, negligence and or wantonness contributed to and/or caused the untimely death of Dennis Courtney.
